7-day sample itinerary to South Africa

Day 1

Arrive in Johannesburg; drive down to Kruger:

Spend your first afternoon at a luxury lodge and take a short game drive. Meals are all arranged for you and bedtime is early.

Day 2 & 3

Experience your first, full safari on Day 2. On Day 3, you can fit in a morning safari and head back to Johannesburg to spend the night.

Day 4

Johannesburg

Take a short tour to Soweto to learn about the roots of apartheid. A tour of Alexandra Township will be just as informative but off the beaten track. Include a stop at the Apartheid Museum for a full taste of the country's history. Transfer to Cape Town.

Day 5

Cape Town

Early morning, take the first boat to Robben Island to see where Mr Nelson Mandela spent decades and inhale the fresh sea air. You will be able to see Table Mountain wherever you go. So, grab a taxi to the base of Table Mountain and ride upon the cable car for magnificent views. Do a small hike or shop around for local souvenirs. For dinner, go to Camps Bay.

Day 6

Cape Winelands

When in South Africa, you would want to taste the world-famous South African wines. Today is the day to visit vineyards and wine tastings around Cape Town.

Cape Peninsula

Here, you can visit Kalk Bay to enjoy the harbour and Simon's Town for the fantastic Penguins at Boulders. Visit Cape Point before finishing up at Cape Town's airport for flight home that evening.

'Vacations' is powered by OneShoe Trust for Responsible & Mindful Travels – a travel events and marketing social enterprise that promotes travelling as a means to raise awareness about climate change and preserving local ecology.
