

7-day sample itinerary for Lombardy

Day 1 & 2

Milan – Fashion Capital of World

In many ways the most modern of Italian cities, Milan is a busy, elegant metropolis with an impressive list of grand palaces, fine churches and important museums. Slow down and spend your time walking through the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele, Duomo and Castello Sforzesco. Try a pizza at Gino Sorbillo or the Michelin starred Ristorante VUN.

Day 3 & 4

Tremezzina

The majestic Villa Carlotta is among the most popular places to visit in Tremezzina. Its neoclassical architecture compliments the lush, neatly maintained gardens and charming walkways. Explore the numerous day-trip ideas around Tremezzina: Castello di Vezio (Perledo), Isola Comacina (Ossuccio) and Varenna (Villa Monastero & Chiesa di San Giorgio). Don't miss seeing Giardini di Villa Melzi, Turati Centro Nautico Lario and Villa del Balbianello.

Day 5 & 6

Brunate

Brunate is a town and commune in the province of Como in northern Italy. Now that you are in the great lake region of Lombardy, enjoy your time – drive around or take vineyard tours. You can visit Valtellina Valley or Domaso – a family run vineyard. The life in Brunate is that of the Italian principal of Dolce Vita – a life of pleasure and good things. And that's how you should spend your time too.

Day 7

Back to Milan

'Vacations' is powered by OneShoe Trust for Responsible & Mindful Travels – a travel events and marketing social enterprise that promotes travelling as a means to raise awareness about climate change and preserving local ecology.
