Debtoree Redemption Reserve

The Company shall comply with the provisions of section 177 C of the Companies Act, regarding creation of Debtoree Redemption Reserve (DRR), read with any clarification issued by the Department of Company Affairs in this regard. As per SEBI Guidelines, DRRs are required to maintain a desirable minimum Net Non-Debt Service Coverage ratio (NDSCR) of 1.2. If a DRR fails to meet this criterion, no dividend shall be declared by the DRR for the relevant year without the approval of the trustees and the dividend shall not exceed 10%.

In addition to the NDSCR, the following measures are stipulated by Reserve Bank of India:

- Financial Institutions are required to maintain a minimum Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) of 9% as stipulated by the RBI. CAR measures capital against risk-weighted assets and hence evaluates sufficiency of capital to absorb unanticipated losses and ensure timely repayment of due.
- Financial Institutions are also required to comply with asset classification and provisioning guidelines which reflect the true value of the asset in terms of its repayment capacity.
- All Financial Institutions are expected to follow prudent and conservative Asset Liability Management practices, with specific emphasis on liquidity management in accordance with RBI guidelines. This ensures that mismatches on this account do not impair its ability to service loans.

Considering the various prudential guidelines stipulated by RBI and the requirement of minimum NDSCR which as mentioned above restricts dividend payments, ICICI in view of newly inserted section 177 C in the Act effective December 14, 2000, regarding creation of DRR, has made a representation to the Department of Company Affairs that the compliance with various prudential guidelines are deemed equivalent to an adequate DRR within the meaning of Section 172, in the case of Public Financial Institutions defined under section 4A of the Act. The Company is awaiting clarifications from the Department of Company Affairs in this regard.

Issue of Bond Certificates

The Bond Certificates will be issued within three months from the Issue Date and will be dispatched at the applicant's risk either by hand delivery or by Registered Post with Acknowledgement due by the Registrar.
