

Novak Djokovic has compared the Russian and Belarusian ban from Wimbledon to his deportation from Australia as he doubled down on his criticism of the All England Club. The world No 1 branded the exclusion of all players from both countries "crazy" when it was first announced last month as a reaction to the invasion of Ukraine.

India's 1st jr world champ living her father's dream

FIROZ MIRZA @Chennai

AROUND five years ago, Sharad Garud, who was then a pump operator with gram panchayat's water supply section in Vadgaon Maval town of Pune district, witnessed his then 13-year-old daughter, Harshada, effortlessly dragging a 50kg rice sack. Sharad, who had won weightlifting silver at state school games before quitting the sport due to financial constraints, was convinced at that moment that his daughter is born to be a lifter.

Harshada proved him right on Monday as she became the first-ever lifter from the country to win gold at the IWF Junior World Championships in Heraklion, Greece. She became a world champion in 45kg with a total effort of 153kg (70kg+83kg), opening India's account on the inaugural day of the competition. The 70kg effort in snatch earned Harshada a top finish while she was second-best in the clean and jerk section, behind Turkey's Bektaş Cansu (85kg), who won silver with an overall effort of 150kg (65kg+85 kg). Medals are awarded separately for snatch, clean and jerk, and total lift in continental and World Championships. However, only one medal is awarded for the overall lift in the Olympics. "Her body structure is different and that fateful day I was convinced that she will make it big in weightlifting," Sharad told this daily. He soon enrolled Harshada in Dube's Gurukul, where she made rapid strides under the watchful eyes of coach Biharilal Dube. "Harshada's gold at the 2020 Khelo India Youth Games earned her a place in the national camp at NIS Patiala, which helped her immensely in improving her performance. The most important thing was diet she started getting there," coach Dube said.

Harshada's father might have been convinced by the coach wanted to test her skills before choosing a sport for her. "We used to train track and field athletes here as well. So I observed Harshada for some time before deciding that she could pursue weightlifting. Today I am a proud coach as she did what many other elite lifters from the country couldn't do," added Dube.

Tokyo Olympics silver medalist, Mirabai Chanu, had won bronze in the 2013 edition while Achinta Sheuli had clinched silver last year in the event.

FIVE-TIME world champion, Viswanathan Anand, has opted to sit out of the upcoming Chess Olympiad at home. He decided to make way for younger talents to play in the event. However, Anand will very much be part of the 20-member contingent as a mentor for both squads (open and women).

There are no other major surprises in a squad filled with young blood, including wunderkid R Praggnanandhaa. He will have R Vaishali, sister, for company in the team. They will be the second set of siblings to represent country at the same Olympiad after N Saritha and N Sudhakar Babu in 1998 (Greece).

The team will be coached by RB Ramesh and Srinath (open first and second teams) and Abhijit Kunte and Swapnil Dhopade.

"I am very happy to be named in the squad for the Olympiad. It is an honour to represent the country and I am proud. I am more pleased as my sister Vaishali is also part of the Indian team. We will give our best shot and try to bring glory for the country. We are all the more delighted to play the tournament as it is near our city at Mahabalipuram," said an elated Praggnanandhaa.

In the last couple of years, Pragu, as he is affectionately called, has won many tournaments. He had recently defeated World No 1 Magnus Carlsen.

This will be his Olympiad debut. "Naturally pleased. There are players in our group who I have coached before or coaching. As an India coach, my job is to see how the players perform well as a team. No player will get extra individual attention. Having said that we have a team of very promising youngsters and an experienced player like Adhiban, so I am hopeful we will do well," Ramesh said.

Chennai WTA event likely in 2022: Amritraj

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

THE Chennai Open may be back in a new avatar as early as later this year. This was according to Vijay Amritraj, president of the Tamil Nadu Tennis Association (TNTA). Speaking to reporters after the association's annual day function inside the SDAT tennis stadium in the city on Monday, Amritraj said: "I had a very good meeting with the honourable chief minister and he wants an event this year," Amritraj said. "Hoping we will be able to make an announcement soon."

Amritraj met several high-ranking officials of the state government, including chief minister, MK Stalin, sometime in the last month. The CM, during an address in the assembly last week, had announced the government's intentions to revive the Chennai Open, an annual ATP 250 event that had its final edition in the city in 2018.

It's likely that the new event, or the first of several new events, will be a WTA 250 meet. While finding a slot in the calendar may be difficult — especially as most of the events in the Asian swing have been wiped out thanks to the pandemic — Amritraj expressed hope the first WTA 250 meet to be scheduled in the city could be staged later this year sometime after the US Open (September 2nd week) and before the start of the Northeast monsoon (middle of November). "We will start with a WTA tour 250 event this year and hopefully get an ATP event next year. Chennai has not had a women's event and it is important for us to encourage the girls in the state."

This isn't the first time that Amritraj has spoken about hosting a women's tour level event. He had spoken about his desire to conduct one but the onset of the pandemic put paid to it. With the contract for the ongoing ATP 250 meet in Pune expiring after the 2023 season, there was some speculation as to whether Chennai may be interested in getting that event back. Amritraj said it would be a new event independent of what happens to the Pune Open. "No, it would be a different one. They are drawing up the calendar as we speak. It will be nice if Chennai can follow the Pune event." Conducting elite level tennis meets in India is difficult because of sponsorship.

Priya trumps Dutee to bag 200m gold

ASHIM SUNAM @Bengaluru

IT was around midnight when Priya H Mohan hit the bed after winning the KIUG 400m gold late on Sunday. After just a few hours of sleep, the Karnataka athlete was back at the Sree Kanteerava Stadium around 6 in the morning for the 200m race, which was billed as Dutee Chand, the experienced campaigner, versus Priya, the upcoming star in Indian athletics. The odds were stacked against the latter with the local girl having less recovery period compared to Dutee, who had last competed on Saturday.

On Monday, one could sense the deep focus on Priya's face as she knelt down on the starting block. Despite Dutee getting off to a decent start, Priya came back strongly in the second half of the race to win the gold in 23.90s seconds while Dutee settled for silver at 24.02s.

"There was no pressure competing against her (Dutee). But yes, my body had not fully recovered, I had just four hours of sleep last night. I could have done well here with better recovery," said Priya.
