This pricing is valid only for card members and may be changed by Priority Pass Ltd. from time to time.

For all guest visits except India, the US$27.00 rate applies at all times and may be changed by Priority Pass Limited from time to time.

These charges will reflect in your monthly billing statement along with the name of the lounge you visited.

Please note that the billing date is not the same as the date of visit and is usually 30-60 days from the month following the lounge visit.

How will be the lounge visit charges be billed to me?

The total lounge visit amount in USD is converted into INR (exchange rate applicable on the date of levying the amount in the card member's account).

The lounge visit charge amount is calculated as follows:

Lounge visit charge in USD * rate of exchange applicable on the day of posting the debit = Lounge visit charge in Indian Rupees ($ 25 * 50 = Rs. 1250). The lounge visit charge varies depending on the part of the world in which the lounge is located (please refer the schedule of charges above). The foreign currency conversion rate will be the rate applicable on the day the transaction is posted in the card member's account. This is usually 30-60 days from the month following the lounge visit.

How will the Lounge Visit charge appear in my monthly statement?

The transaction narration/description for every lounge visit will include details of the lounge name and the visit date. For example, if you visited the Clipper Lounge at the Mumbai Domestic Airport on January 11 2013, the narration will read as 'Clipper Bar Lounge 11-Jan-13'. The narration will appear separately for card member visits and guest visits.

If I lose my Priority Pass, whom should I report it to?

In case of loss of your Priority Pass, please contact ICICI Bank at our toll-free number 1800-22-8181 or at our city-specific 24-hour Customer Care numbers. We will issue a new Priority Pass absolutely free of cost. Please note that in case the loss is not reported to us and any lounges are accessed with your Priority Pass, the lounge visits will continue to be charged to your credit card account. Hence we urge you to report any loss at the earliest.

Membership of Frequent Flyer programme facilitates access to airport lounges. So why do I need a Priority Pass?

As membership of Frequent Flyer programmes continues to grow, many airlines are becoming more restrictive with lounge access. And it is not always possible to fly with your preferred airline. With your Priority Pass, you can access over 600 lounges irrespective of the airline or class you are flying in.

Can I use the lounges irrespective of the airline I am flying with?

Yes. All lounges listed in the Priority Pass directory are open to you, irrespective of the airline you fly with.
