Last flight from Poland in: Stopped even for stragglers, says minister

ANONNA DUTT
 NEW DELHI, MARCH 7

ALONG WITH Harjot Singh, the student who sustained bullet injuries in Ukraine, a grey C-17 Globemaster aircraft brought back 201 people and at least two dogs from the war-torn country on Monday, ending the evacuation through the Polish border.

Three lights in the hazy sky seen at around 6.10 pm announced the flight's arrival at Hindon airport in Ghaziabad.

Over 3,000 Indians have been evacuated through Poland under Operation Ganga.

Soon as the aircraft parked alongside eight other C-17s and a smaller aircraft, an ambulance reached it and took Singh to the Army's Research and Referral hospital in Delhi's Dhauula Kuan.

Stating that "no one can treat bullet wounds better than the Army hospital", Union minister V K Singh, who returned on the same flight, said: "Harjot is okay.

Akhil with his Yorkshire, Hutchiko.
 Amit Mehra

There was some delay in getting him out — there was an attack on Vinnitsia airport (in Ukraine), because of which there was heavy (traffic) jam. After a lot of effort, our embassy in Ukraine was able to get him out. They reached the airport at around 4.30 am."

Singh was in Poland to coordinate the evacuation of Indians. Many on board the flight on Monday were from the eastern Ukrainian city of Kharkiv, which was being bombed heavily.

"By the time this flight took off, we had evacuated 3,000 people," Singh said. "No more people were coming. Even for the stragglers, we stopped the aircraft. It is possible that there are some children who did not come, so at the border check-post there are people from the embassy, so that if someone comes they can be brought home. "There is no announcement on any windup of the operations, but I was to bring back all students till the end. So I have taken the last flight from Poland."

On board the flight was Akhil from Kerala, who travelled with his 18-month-old Yorkshire named Hutchiko. Akhil was stuck for more than five days in Kharkiv before walking 10 km with his dog to the train station on March 1. Even though he was scared of bombings, Akhil said he did not leave Kharkiv until he knew that animals were being allowed on evacuation flights — "he is a part of my family, I couldn't leave him behind." Amid food shortage, Hutchiko went hungry for three days, Akhil said. "It was so bad that he kept sleeping; he wouldn't wake up. Then we went out and got some milk and bread. If there was food, he was the first to get it;

I ate whatever was left," he said.

At Hindon airport, Akhil took to feeding Hutchiko.

Ajay Kumar from Bihar, who would have completed his medical education this June, stayed back for seven days in Poland to help fellow students. He left Kyiv four days after the war started. "It was scary. I lived on the top floor of my building; it is the most likely to get hit by a missile. The airstrike sirens and running to the bunker 200 metres away was scary."

Ajay also walked to the station and boarded a train to Lviv, from where he crossed the border to Poland. "What worked in my favour was that I know the language; I know the roads," Ajay said. "I was able to board the train because I could speak their language. And when I crossed the Poland border, at the place where we were staying there were people from other nationalities volunteering. I decided to stay back and help, too...what ever I could before taking the last flight out."

Ties between China, India have seen some setbacks: Wang

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
 BEIJING, MARCH 7

BILATERAL RELATIONS between China and India have encountered "some setbacks" in recent years, Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi said on Monday, as he called for a "fair and equitable" settlement of the boundary issue between the two countries.

In an apparent reference to the United States, Wang said some forces have always sought to stoke tensions between China and India, which, he added, should be "partners rather than rivals".

"As regards the boundary question, it is left over from history. China has all along advocated managing differences through equal footing consultation and actively seeking a fair and equitable settlement and meanwhile not letting it affect or interfere with bigger picture of bilateral cooperation," Wang said at a press conference on the sidelines of the Chinese parliament.

Last month, speaking at a panel discussion at the Munich Security Conference (MSC) 2022 in Germany, Foreign Minister S Jaishankar said India's relationship with China is going through a "very difficult phase" after Beijing violated agreements not to bring military forces to the border.

Wang said: "More and more people have come to realise that for China and India, both major countries with a population of over one billion, only by staying independent can we firmly grasp our destiny and realise our goals of development."

"As an Indian proverb goes, help your own brother's boat across and your own will reach the shore," he added.

WEST BENGAL BUDGET SESSION Governor fails to make speech as BJP MLAs protest in House

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
 KOLKATA, MARCH 7

UNRULY SCENES were witnessed on the first day of the budget session in the West Bengal Assembly on Monday when opposition BJP legislators staged a protest amid sloganeering against the recent "violence" during the civic body elections in the state.

The BJP MLAs, who blamed the ruling TMC for the civic poll violence, did not allow Governor Jagdeep Dhankhar to deliver his opening speech and protested near the well of the House.

When the Governor tried to walk out of the Assembly, the ruling party

Mamata pleads with Governor.
 PTI

MLAs stopped him, making a request for reading out at least one line from the speech. The BJP alleged that the TMC government closed all the gates of Assembly to stop the Governor. After nearly an hour of logjam, the Governor at last read out the first and the last lines of the budget speech so as to table the speech in the House.

RS: 13 MPs retiring, elections to be held on March 31

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
 NEW DELHI, MARCH 7

THE ELECTION Commission on Monday announced polls to fill 13 Rajya Sabha seats across six states falling vacant in April, including those of Congress veterans AK Antony and Anand Sharma.

Prominent among those retiring are Antony (Kerala), Sharma (Himachal Pradesh), and Partap Singh Bajwa and Naresh Gujral (Punjab). While former Defence Minister Antony, Deputy Leader of Congress in Rajya Sabha Sharma and Bajwa are Congress leaders, Gujral represents the Shiromani Akali Dal.

Members from Assam (two), Himachal (one), Kerala (three), Nagaland (one) and Tripura (one) are retiring on April 2, while five members from Punjab are retiring on April 9.
